

I am in support of the written permission as the FCC rule stands. The TCPA never had an EBR exception! My business fax has been taken from me for my use by junk faxes using my ink & paper & tying up my fax line for my customers orders. Most of the junk faxes have no header, hide the sender, give a remove number that just gets you added to more fax lists.